

Build a Strong Foundation for Child Well-Being

North Carolina's future prosperity relies on the healthy growth and development of all children. It's essential that they have safe, stable, nurturing relationships with caring adults. As an adult, you play a vital role in making sure children grow up in safe, stable, nurturing homes.

Professionals, civic groups, businesses, elected officials, and individuals collectively working together can build a supportive community that prevents child abuse and neglect from ever occurring.

Learn more about what you can do to prevent child abuse and neglect and help all children grow up healthy and ready to succeed by taking one of Prevent Child Abuse North Carolina's free online courses today.

Take Prevent Child Abuse North Carolina's Free Online Courses

Recognizing and Responding to Suspicions of Child Maltreatment

Two-hour course

After completing this course, you should know:

- The signs and symptoms of child maltreatment North Carolina mandatory reporting laws
- The legal definitions of abuse, neglect, and dependency
- How and where to make a referral of suspected child maltreatment
- Barriers to reporting and some strategies for overcoming them
- Where to find additional resources

What is Prevention?

One-hour course

Key Topics:

- How is prevention different from intervention?
- What are prevention services?
- What are risk & protective factors?
- How can we reduce risk factors and increase protective factors?
- When and to whom should prevention services be provided?

To take the courses today or learn more, visit:

PreventChildAbuseNC.org/services/trainings-and-professional-development

Prevent Child Abuse North Carolina offers these courses, workshops, and trainings free of charge or at reduced cost thanks to support from the North Carolina Division of Social Services and the generosity of our supporters.

3716 National Drive | Suite 118 | Raleigh, NC 27612

919-829-8009

PreventChildAbuseNC.org

State of North Carolina
Department of Health and Human Services
Division of Social Services
www.ncdhhs.gov | www.ncdss.gov
NC DHHS is an equal opportunity employer and provider.

555 copies of this public document were printed at a cost of $183.15 or $0.33 each.

